JEWISH MUSEUM OF FLORIDA HOSTS
ANNUAL JUDGES & LAWYERS EVENT

CHIEF JUDGE JOEL H. BROWN KEYNOTES
January 26, 2012 at 5:30 p.m.

Event Chair Justice Gerald Kogan announces the Tenth Annual Judges and Lawyers Event, to be held on Thursday, January 26 at 5:30 pm at the Museum. The event is open to all current or new Museum members who are judges or lawyers or in related professions. To become a Museum Member and/or serves on the host committee, please contact Jo Ann Arnowitz, Executive Director, at 786-972-3180.

The keynote speaker is Judge Joel H. Brown who, in July 2009, became Chief Judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit of Florida. He is a graduate of the University of Florida with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, majoring in accounting and a graduate of the University of Florida School of Law with a Juris Doctorate degree.

Judge Brown was a Board Certified Civil Trial Lawyer and received the highest rating by Martindale Hubbell of AV. He is admitted to practice in Florida, Colorado, United States District Court for the Southern District, United States Court of Appeals for the 11th Judicial Circuit and the Supreme Court of the United States. Governor Robert Martinez appointed him to the County Court for Miami-Dade County and Governor Lawton Chiles subsequently appointed him to the Circuit Court of the 11th Judicial Circuit of Florida. Judge Brown previously served as the Associate Administrative Judge and Administrative Judge of the Criminal Division of County Court, and the Associate Administrative Judge of the Family Division of Circuit Court.

Please join us for what promises to be a memorable evening of camaraderie and conversation with fellow colleagues. RSVP by January 20 to 786-972-3180 or info@jewishmuseum.com.

ABOUT THE MUSEUM

The Jewish Museum of Florida on South Beach is housed in two adjacent lovingly restored historic buildings that were once synagogues for Miami Beach's first Jewish congregation. The focal point of the Museum is its core exhibit MOSAIC: Jewish Life in Florida 1763 to the Present and temporary history and art exhibits that change periodically. Current exhibits are Rabbi Irving Lehrman: His Life & Art through January 15 and Wooden Synagogues of Poland and the Florida Connection through March 18. Opening on January 31 is Max Miller: Final Mourners' Kaddish - 333 Days in Painting through May 13. A Collections & Research Center, several films, Timeline Wall of Jewish history, Museum Store and Bessie's Bistro complete the experience for visitors of all ages and backgrounds. Accredited by the American Association of Museums, the Museum is located at 301 Washington Avenue, South Beach and is open daily 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. except Mondays and Civil and Jewish holidays. Admission: Adults/$6; Seniors/$5; Families/$12; Members and children under 6/Always Free; Saturdays/Free. For information: 305-672-5044 or www.jewishmuseum.com.
